

WYNNE CHATS OF FETE DE PRINTEMPS TO BE GIVEN TODAY

B. K. Fraternity to Give Large Affair for Mountaineers of Virginia and Philadelphia College Settlement, at Home of Mrs. Henry Pemberton, Jr., in Germantown

OUTDOOR entertainments are decidedly the order of the day now. The first one of the season will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Pemberton, Jr., Wisconsin avenue and School House lane, Germantown, under the auspices of the B. K. Fraternity, for the benefit of the Mountaineers of Virginia and the Philadelphia College Settlement.

The B. K. Fraternity is composed of the most fashionable girls in the city, and the good works which they undertake and keep up are most praiseworthy.

This afternoon's affair will have many attractive features. There will be a concert, where some of Philadelphia's best dancers will provide special exhibitions. There will also be general and competitive dancing, under the management of Lillie Crawford and Hope Mitchell. The music will be provided by Henry Reeves, with his big brass drum and other paraphernalia.

Katherine Kremer Page will have the fancy table, and Virginia Roberts will be in charge of the tea, and will be assisted by Helen and Gertrude Tower, Sarah Penrose, Mary Alice Clay and Edith Fox. Edith Smith will be in charge of the other refreshments. Then there will be movies, with special pictures adapted for the children. A baby show for children under 5 years of age, who are able to walk, will provide especial amusement.

Each child will receive a pink or blue toy balloon, with his or her number on it, and will be delighted where fond admirers may vote for their favorite.

Mrs. William P. O'Neill will be in charge of the book shop. Caroline Pemberton will look after the pony rides, and the garden utensils will be in charge of Josephine Duran.

Among others interested are Mary Clayton, Mary Smith, Mrs. Nicholas Bilde, Mildred Lee, Isabel Page, Mary Boyd, Eleanor Verner, Katharine Tenney, Barbara Boyd, Jean Hancock, Margaret Tenney, Edith Baily, Rose Dolan, Harriet Deaver, Catherine Wharton Norris, Katherine Putnam, Mildred Langstreth, Mrs. Gurnee Dixon, Pauline Diston, Mrs. John Shipley Munn and Mrs. Arturo de Heeren.

Those of us who are looking forward to the Battle of Flowers, which was to have been given on June 22, will be interested to know that the committee has changed the date, the reason being the war bird told me, that Marion Wynne and George Wharton Pepper, Jr., have chosen that day for their nuptials. The committee, of course, did not exactly like to ask George and Marion to change their date, as the invitations are all ready to go out, you know, so they decided the better thing to do would be to change their own date. So, my dears, the Battle of Flowers will be held on June 23 at the Philadelphia Country Club.

PERSONALS
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davis of Hottel street, Germantown, entertained at luncheon today in honor of the bride party of their daughter, Miss Catherine Hunter Davis, whose marriage to Mr. Charles F. Rowley will take place tomorrow. The guests included Miss Katherine Potter, Miss Carolyn Durack, Miss Helen Stoughton, Miss Amy Linsley Develin, Miss Margaret Davis and Mrs. Henry D. Booth, Jr.

Weddings

FISHER-COOKE.
The marriage of Miss Josephine John Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Cooke, and Mr. Charles W. Fisher was solemnized this afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill. The pastor, the Rev. J. Andrews Harris, officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Blakeman Quintard Meyer, as matron of honor, and Miss G. Rosamond Fisher as maid of honor. The four little flower girls wore her silken, Miss Josephine Meyer, Miss Virginia K. Meyer, Miss Priscilla Jenks and Miss Bessie Cooke.

The bride appeared in a lustrous gown of white satin, embroidered in seed pearls and brilliants. Her veil was of rare old point lace, and the bridal bouquet, an old-fashioned one, consisted of Sweetheart roses and other flowers in pastel shades. Mrs. Meyer and Miss Fisher were gowned alike in peach-colored net frocks, trimmed with bands of silver. Their picturesque hats of tulle and ribbon were with black net and trimmed with spring flowers. They carried apron flowers. The four little flower girls wore tulle and hats of George's crepe, and carried baskets filled with spring flowers.

Mr. John Hancock Arnett acted as best man and the ushers were Mr. George G. Meade, Mr. George J. Cooke, Mr. Paul Norris, Dr. George Norris, Mr. Blakeman Quintard Meyer, Mr. William P. Jenks and Mr. William Wayne.

Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Gravers lane and Crittenden street, Chestnut Hill. Mr. Fisher and his bride will make their home in Ambler.

CLERKS-KRITZ.
The marriage of Miss Ruth M. Kretz, daughter of Mrs. Emma Kretz, of Reading, Pa., to Mr. Joseph C. Kretz, of 1213 North 23d street, was solemnized on Tuesday morning in St. Elizabeth's church, 23d and Berks streets. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Cunningham and was followed by a breakfast at the Adelphi. Miss Elizabeth Kretz attended her sister as maid of honor, and Mr. Joseph C. Kretz as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Kretz will spend a fortnight on their wedding trip and upon their return will be at home at 1912 North 23d street.

Along the Reading
Mr. Daniel B. Wentz, of the orchard, Washington lane, Wyncote, accompanied by his father, Mr. J. S. Wentz, of Philadelphia, will leave shortly for Atlantic City, to spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sachs, of Wyncote, have Mrs. Sachs' mother, Mrs. Weyl, of Chicago, Ill., as their guest for an indefinite time.

The Wyncote branch of the Pennsylvania Women's Division of National Freshness will hold a meeting in the parish house of All Hallows Church this afternoon for the purpose of organizing new departments in connection with the work and to secure new members. The first Aid class that has been meeting every Tuesday afternoon is a great success, and will continue through the month of June. There are 25 members and nine departments, from which the members can choose.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Horvath, of 3817 North 19th street, and his mother, Mrs. Laura Shinkle, will spend the summer in Ocean Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blanchard, of Birmingham, Ala., who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Barnard, returned home this week.
